CHORES FOR CHANGE
WHAT IS HEIFER INTERNATIONAL?

Heifer International is a nonprofit with a mission to end world hunger and poverty while caring for the Earth. For more than 70 years, we have provided livestock and environmentally sound agricultural training to improve the lives of those who struggle daily for reliable sources of food and income. We bring communities together and link farmers to nearby markets where they can sell extra milk from goats and cows, eggs from chickens and honey from bees.

We work in more than 25 countries, including the United States, to lift families and communities to self-reliance. Our goal is to help families achieve living incomes, which will allow them to feed their families daily, educate their children, and have proper housing, water, hygiene and other essential resources.

The principles that guide our work are called the 12 Cornerstones for Just and Sustainable Development. The heart of our community development philosophy is Passing on the Gift®. Through this, every family that receives an animal must pass on one or more of the animal’s offspring, along with knowledge on how to care for it, to another family in need.

WHAT IS CHORES FOR CHANGE®?

Chores for Change is a service program designed for children and youth. Whether at home, school or in another group setting, the program shows students how they can create local and global change at the same time. The program invites students to volunteer in their communities while raising funds to support our mission around the world.

Students recruit sponsors to pledge donations for time they spend doing service activities. Once their service project is complete, participants collect pledges, helping eliminate hunger and poverty around the world.

Choosing a project in their own communities allows students to gain firsthand experience of local issues of hunger and poverty. Volunteer projects may include handing out food at soup kitchens, working in a community garden, doing a river cleanup or reading to younger children.

We hope that students discover the benefits of service and learn how their interests and talents can benefit others. By exploring how they can improve social issues through service, participants learn lifelong lessons about the impact their work can have at a local level and around the world.
MEASUREMENTS
Chores for Change is a flexible program, so you can adapt it to fit your group’s needs.

- Determine how to track your students’ service, whether it’s in hours or minutes, or create your own measurement.
- Decide how long the program will run.
- Incorporate the program into the natural rhythm of your home, school or group. Chores for Change may be organized to last a semester, holiday season, camp session or summer.

TIME VERIFICATION APPROVALS
Use the Service Log included or develop your own. Each participant needs to use a copy of the same time sheet to prevent any potential conflict between participants, sponsors and organizations.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES
Lead a successful program by finding opportunities for your students to serve.

- Set criteria for the types of service your students complete, or allow students to research and follow their own interests.
- Consider whether students should complete service projects as a group or as individuals.
- Remind students that flexibility is important! They may need to work around schedules (theirs and their place of service), the types of tasks involved and other challenges.

SPONSORSHIPS
- When asking for donations, encourage sponsors to set a maximum pledge amount.
- Show appreciation! Consider holding a session for students to write thank you notes to sponsors who fulfill their pledges.

COLLECTING FUNDS
Determine how students need to collect donations from sponsors. Heifer offers online and offline giving options.

Online: Set up a group fundraising page at www.heifer.org/fundraise to take online donations.

- Share your group’s fundraising page link on social media, email, and the school or group’s website.
- Ask students and parents to create individual team member pages to share.

Offline: If the traditional giving method works better in your program, ask sponsors to write checks to Heifer International and add Chores for Change in the memo line. Remind students to return the checks to you, or designate someone to collect donations.

REACH OUT
Contact our Community Engagement team by emailing info@heifer.org to order resources, ask questions, or request a speaker or presentation. Our team is available and glad to be part of your program.
DISCOVER WHY
Help your students discover WHY and HOW we achieve our mission before beginning their service projects.
- Download our Global Study Guides on different topics for your students.
- Plan a trip to a Heifer International Learning Center for a hands-on educational experience.
- Visit When Cows Fly to find fun ideas and inspiration for your service projects.
- Connect with us on social media for photos, stories and videos.
- Dig into our farmers’ stories featured in World Ark magazine and World Ark blog.
- Discover learning resources and opportunities here.

INVOLVE STUDENTS AND FAMILIES
Engage students and their families using the included forms to guide the process.
- Send the Student’s Guide home with participants and encourage them to discuss the program with their families.
- Ask students to return the Chores for Change Enrollment Form to you for tracking purposes.
- Use the Chores for Change Sponsor Form to sign up sponsors and collect pledges.
- Use the Service Log to plan and complete service projects.

REPORTING SESSIONS
Keep students motivated and accountable using reporting sessions to improve their opportunity for success.
- Sessions can include formal reports or informal chat sessions where participants talk about what they’ve done and what they’ve learned.
- Encourage participants to share successes and challenges.

STAY ON TRACK
Even the most well-intentioned students sometimes procrastinate.
- Use the reporting sessions to track progress or have participants turn in their time cards weekly to prevent them from end-loading their time.
Once students complete their service projects, they get to decide how their time and energy can be converted into a sustainable gift that will have daily impact on the lives of struggling families.

- Ask participants to collect their pledges. Once all the donations have been collected, host a pledge party to celebrate.
- Explore the gift catalog and discuss the difference each gift makes in the community that receives it. As a group, decide what you want to give.
- Send in the pledges and the included Chores for Change Donation Form.
- Remind students that their service work will have a lasting impact in their communities and that the gifts from their pledges will continue to help families around the world for years to come.
- Share your story on When Cows Fly, social media or local media outlets. You may inspire others in your community.

1. Ask students and parents to collect their sponsorship funds through the group or individual online fundraising pages or through physical checks made out to Heifer International.

2. Tally the total and select an animal, or other gift, from the gift catalog.

3. Send checks and donation form to:

   Heifer International
   P.O. Box 8058
   Little Rock, AR 72203

4. Celebrate your group’s success and enjoy knowing your hard work will continue to transform families for generations!

5. Share your success on social media and in your local media. Remember to tag us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

888.5HUNGER (888.548.6437)
Did you know approximately 770 million people around the world live in poverty? That figure is shocking. Here’s the good news: you can do something about it. Welcome to Chores for Change!

Get ready to be part of the solution to end world hunger and poverty by working in your own community. By participating in this program, you choose service activities, log volunteer hours and collect sponsorships.

A quick overview of Chores for Change:

- Think about service activities you are interested in and follow your leader’s advice.
- Set a goal for the amount of time you want to serve and the amount you hope to collect.
- Ask sponsors to pledge money for each unit of time you volunteer.
- Keep track of your volunteer time. When the program ends, add up your time.
- Collect pledges from your sponsors.

CHOOSING SERVICE ACTIVITIES

Look for service opportunities that help eliminate hunger and poverty in your area. Schools, faith communities and organizations often host food drives and community improvement projects. You may volunteer to work with them, or you can design your own project.

Other ideas include:

- Sorting food or donations at a food pantry
- Serving at a local soup kitchen or feeding program
- Volunteering at a nursing home
- Helping neighbors with yardwork

Tip: Ask your leader whether you will collect donations online or have sponsors write checks to Heifer International.
LOGGING VOLUNTEER HOURS
Keep track of the amount of time you work. It will determine how much your sponsors will pay. Ask sponsors to pledge a certain amount for each unit of time you work (e.g. $1 per hour). Then, keep track of your time. (For example, if you work for 20 hours at a food bank, ask your sponsor to give $20 to Heifer.) Make sure you know the unit of time set by your leader so you can tell your sponsors.

Remember:

• Ask an adult to verify the hours you work. That way, everyone knows you have an accurate measurement. Your sponsors will want to know that you accomplished the work.
• Agree on a maximum amount with each sponsor. If someone pledges $1 per hour but doesn’t realize you are participating in Chores for Change all summer, the sponsor may not be willing or able to pay for 500 hours.

COLLECTING SPONSORSHIPS
Look over your sponsor form. Make sure you know how your leader wants you to complete the form. Then, go find sponsors! These individuals are a good place to start when looking for sponsors:

• Friends and family
• Parents of friends who are in clubs or on teams with you
• People who work with your parents
• Civic groups such as the General Federation of Women’s Clubs or Lions Club International
• Set up a booth at the school cafeteria

If your leader set up an online fundraising page, you can send your sponsors the link when you complete your service project.

COLLECT YOUR DONATIONS
After you complete your service, contact your sponsors to let them know how many hours you served. If your leader set up a fundraising page, share the link so your sponsors can make their donations online. If your donor prefers to write a check, ask them to make it to Heifer International and write Chores for Change in the memo line. Return all collected funds by the deadline.

CELEBRATE
You’ve done great work in your community. With your fellow Chores for Change participants, you raised funds that will provide opportunities for struggling families to improve their lives.
Here are some frequently asked questions and suggested responses you can use when potential sponsors ask questions about Heifer.

Q: Whose program is this?
A: Chores for Change is a Heifer International program. Heifer is a nonprofit organization that works with communities to end hunger and poverty while caring for the Earth. Donations help provide gifts of livestock and training for struggling families. Be sure to talk about how Heifer provides training for farm families and how Passing on the Gift works to lift communities to self-reliance. Also, tell your potential sponsor what local organization is hosting the program, whether it’s your school, congregation or other group.

Q: How much should I pledge?
A: Whatever you are comfortable pledging. Tell sponsors how many hours you expect to work so they know how much money they are committing. Encourage sponsors to set a maximum amount.

Q: What are you going to do to earn the money?
A: I’m going to volunteer in my community to help eliminate world hunger and poverty. Explain which service activities you plan to do and tell your sponsors how they can help you reach your fundraising goals.

Q: How do I know that you do the work?
A: I will document my time using a form and have it signed by an adult who oversees the program. Show them the form and point out where an adult will verify that you worked the time.

Q: What will my money buy?
A: The gift catalog includes several options from cows and goats to bees, chickens and rabbits. Our group plans to review the catalog and decide what to give once we collect our pledges. Make sure you understand the way Heifer works and can explain about the animals purchased for needy communities. If your class or group has set a goal, tell your sponsors!

Q: When will you collect the money and when will it get to Heifer?
A: I will contact you when my hours are complete. Then, you’re welcome to give online with our fundraising page, or write a check. Help your sponsors feel comfortable with their giving options so they trust it’s following the right process to reach Heifer.

Show appreciation. Thank your sponsors for their willingness to support your and their interest in Heifer.

The donations you collect from your Chores for Change service project will help change the lives of people around the world. Your donation could go toward:

GIFT ARK
- to give a pair of each animal in our barnyard, along with training

BIOGAS STOVES
- to train families in using biogas equipment while providing a cleaner, healthier living environment

HEIFERS
- to bring milk, which a family can sell for extra income or drink, adding protein to their diets

SEND A GIRL TO SCHOOL
- to provide tuition, books, paper and other learning materials, along with equal learning opportunities for girls

WATER PUMPS
- to provide farmers with enough water to sustain their crops by installing treadle pumps

WATER BUFFALO
- to provide sturdy draft animals that help farmers plow fields and carry heavy loads to market

SHEEP
- to provide families with meat, milk and wool, which they can use to make clothes

PIGS
- to give families a source of manure, along with multiple offspring

TREE SEEDLINGS
- To help the land by putting nitrogen back into the soil, serving as wind-breaks and providing animal feed, fencing and firewood

LLAMAS
- to provide transportation and wool, which can be used to make products such as blankets or carpet

GOATS
- to provide milk for families that they can drink, sell for income, or make into cheese or yogurt

RABBITS
- to provide an easy-to-raise animal that multiplies quickly, providing a steady source of protein and income

FISH FINGERLINGS
- to give not only fish, but also training in fish farming techniques, proper feeding and water temperatures

ANIMAL CARE KIT
- to give participants the necessary tools and training to properly care for their animals

BEES
- to help families earn money through the sale of honey and beeswax

FLOCKS OF DUCKS & GEESE
- to boost family income and nutrition, providing a steady supply of protein-rich eggs and meat

WHERE DOES MY GIFT GO?

To help the greatest number of families move toward self-reliance, Heifer does not use its limited resources to track individual animals from donation to distribution to specific families. Instead, your gift supports the entire Heifer mission. We use your gift where it can do the most good by combining it with the gifts of others to help transform entire communities. Our unique community development model has assisted more than 31 million families directly and indirectly since 1944 — more than 155 million men, women and children. In fiscal year 2016, we assisted 3.6 million families within our four program areas. Heifer International is qualified as a charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to Heifer International are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.
